Professional Closed-Back Studio Headphones

Nothing But the Truth

A perfect balance of accuracy, comfort, and versatility, HD 480 PRO studio headphones empower you to create with focus and confidence in the studio and on the move. The closed-back design and remarkable Vibration Attenuation System preserve the integrity of your audio signal and ensure you hear nothing but the truth.

Remarkable comfort for Hours of Focus

Handcrafted and German-engineered with built-to-last components and a lightweight, flexible design, HD 480 PRO lets you feel the music and forget about the headphones. Carefully engineered ergonomics eliminate pressure points while the flexible precision-fit design ensures maximum comfort and eliminates audio leakage.
